

Different models produce distinct 2031 transition footprints under identical scenario targets

Each panel is a 100-m ensemble raster; overlays show dissolved transition cells relative to the observed 2024 state. Cells are not cadastral parcels.